

Confidential Teacher Reference Form

Dear Teacher,

Please consider recommending the student who has asked you to support his or her attendance at a summer program at The University of Texas in Austin. Each participant is selected on the basis of his or her maturity, enthusiasm, intellectual curiosity and potential to benefit from participation in discussions about ethics in the world, in conflict resolution training, and in working with others to produce videos, write songs and create Internet publications. Students do not need to be knowledgeable, just enthusiastic. To learn more about our program, please visit the website: <http://www.utpcr.org/camp/camp.htm>.

Please answer these questions and send the answers by email. Your reference is a valued and important part of our admissions process and your honest responses carry significant weight. Sending it back constitutes a signature, so don't worry about printing or copying out the form.

All information you provide is confidential. References submitted to the UTPCR Global Ethics and Conflict Resolution Summer Symposium are read only by members of the Admissions Committee and leadership staff.

Thank you for your help!

1. How long have you know the applicant? In what capacity?

2. Using a scale of 1 to 10, with 10 being the highest possible rating, please indicate how you think the applicant compares to his/her peer group as a student in the following areas:

Intellectual Curiosity: _____ Motivation: _____ Diligence: _____ Academic Achievement: _____

3. Please comment on the likelihood that the applicant would be a constructive and positive member of a small group of peers and leaders, who are supportive of one another and open to new experiences and challenges.

4. If you were leading or teaching at a program such as those described on our website, would you be eager to have the applicant in your group?
